Screen protector

Product number: 30834mc

Our liquid screen protector for smartphones, smartwatches, and tablets provides invisible protection for your devices, making the display significantly more durable than traditional screen protectors. This innovative product safeguards the screens of your devices from scratches and wear. Product Highlights: Liquid Glass Sealing: The screen protector forms a transparent layer on the display, making it more resistant to scratches and damage. Invisible Protection: Unlike traditional screen protectors, this liquid screen protector is completely invisible and does not affect the visibility or touch sensitivity of the display. Versatile Application: Suitable for smartphones, smartwatches, and tablets – one product for various device types. Easy Application: The application is straightforward and ensures even sealing of the display. Print option: Your logo will be applied to the back of the packaging via a label to effectively showcase your brand.
