RPET gloves

Product number: 9256707

Our gloves made from RPET and soft acrylic are not only warm and comfortable but also extremely practical. Specially crafted tips on the thumb, index, and middle fingers allow you to operate your smartphones and touchscreen devices without having to take off the gloves. This makes them an ideal winter gadget for those who want to stay connected even in the cold.

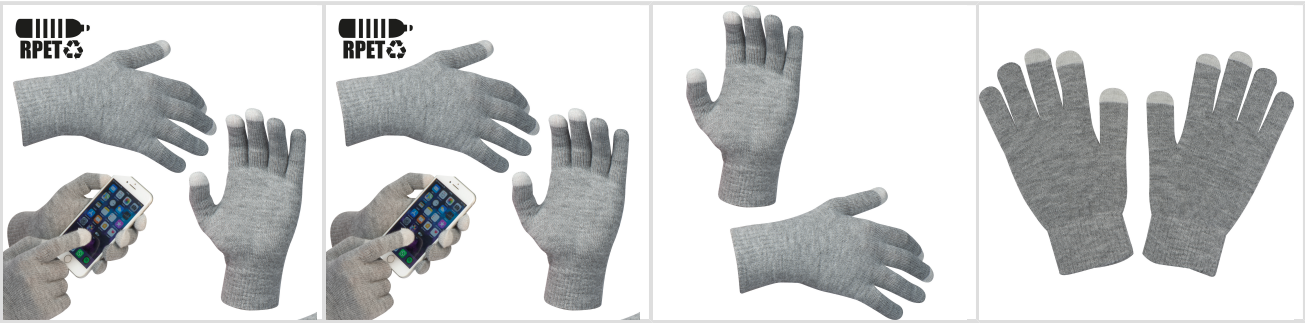

Product Highlights:

- Warmth and Comfort: Made from soft acrylic and RPET material, these gloves keep your hands warm and are comfortable to wear.
- Touchscreen Functionality: Specially crafted tips enable the operation of smartphones, tablets, and other touchscreen devices without removing the gloves.
- Versatile Use: Whether on a winter stroll, engaging in outdoor sports, or on the way to work, these gloves are versatile for various activities.
- Print option: Your logo will be printed on the back of the gloves, personalizing them for promotional use or as a gift.
